TRANSGENDER

PEN PALS

FALL '99

Tapestry

A FEW IMPORTANT WORDS FROM KATE BORNSTEIN:

"I remember when I was first thinking of the very real possibility of my going through a ::gasp:: sex change. This was in the days before tranny support groups. I steeled myself and made the long distance call to IFGE. To my delight, I spoke with a trans woman who calmed me down and pointed me in the direction of some deeper self-work prior to making my decision to proceed. It was invaluable advice. I owe a debt to IFGE. I think many trans-folks do. Maybe one of them is you? If not right this minute, then perhaps some day?

Look, IFGE is an organization that seems to rise above all the politics of the trans experience, getting to the heart of what matters to each of its multi-identified members. Wouldn't it be worth the mini-investment of a membership to make sure IFGE is there for all of us? I think so."

Cross-dressing in NYC unlikely to shock

By Judith Martin - reprinted from the Boston Globe 8/18/99

Dear Miss Manners:

I am a middle-aged man who enjoys wearing women's clothing. I've always restricted this behavior to the privacy of my apartment, but now I have a wonderful opportunity to venture out in public while crossdressed.

A sympathetic female friend has graciously invited me to dress as a woman and accompany her to New York City for a weekend of museum visits, theater-going, gourmet-dining, and shopping. She believes my appearance and demeanor are sufficiently ladylike to avoid ticklish situations.

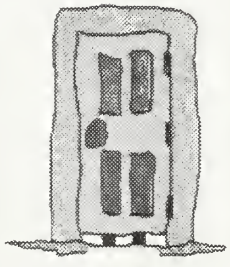
I have selected a subdued wardrobe characterized by, modest hemlines, medium heels, and demure makeup. I have no desire to draw attention to myself, and I will endeavor to be as inconspicuous as possible.

Despite these precautions, some people may discern that I am a man in women's clothing. While I am prepared to accept any opprobrium that may ensue, I am worried that it may be impolite to impose — however tastefully - my tastes, on an unwitting public. Please be so kind as to benefit me with your thoughts on this matter.

Gentle Reader.

Miss Manners has more faith than you do in the sophistication of New Yorkers. While it may be true that they have rarely observed any one of ladylike appearance and demeanor whose sartorial taste runs to the subdued, modest, and demure, she believes they can be trusted to absorb the shock. She wishes you a pleasant holiday.

Without your support crossdressing may always be limited to a small area.



Won't you help by becoming a member of IFGE.
Your membership helps with outreach and education to those who don't live in closets. Isn't it about time the shame, mockery and killing be stopped.
